One of the most important of the many things which have been done for the benefit of the people of this country is the establishment of the National Bureau of Statistics. This bureau has been the source of much valuable information concerning the condition of the Hollis, Rev. Isaac.

Sergeant, Rev. John. 1710-1749.

**H.85.83

A letter to Dr. Colman, of Boston; containing Mr. Sergeant's proposal of a more effectual method for the education of Indian children; to raise 'em if possible into a civil and industrious people; by introducing the English language among them; and thereby instilling into their minds and hearts, with a more lasting impression, the principles of virtue and piety. Made publick by Dr. Colman at the desire of Mr. Sergeant, with some general account of what the Rev. Isaac Hollis of — has already done for the sons of this Indian tribe of Houssatannoc, now erected into a township by the General Court, and called Stockbridge.
